Forgiveness / Interest Rate Reduction Request

Interest Rate Reduction:

All South Carolina Teachers Loan recipients who teach on a full-time basis in the South Carolina public school system are eligible for an interest rate reduction of two percentage points below the rate agreed to in the SC Teachers Loan Promissory Note. The interest rate reduction must be renewed annually.

Forgiveness / Payment Postponement:

Recipients who are certified and who teach in a critical geographic or critical subject area in the SC public school system may have their loan payments postponed while they teach. In addition, while teaching in a critical area, the loan is eligible for forgiveness based on the following guidelines:

- For teaching in a critical geographic or a critical subject area, the outstanding balance will be forgiven at a rate of 20%, or $3,000, whichever is greater, for each full year of teaching, up to 100%.
- For teaching in a critical geographic and a critical subject area simultaneously, the outstanding balance will be forgiven at the rate of 33.33%, or $5,000, whichever is greater, for each full year of teaching, up to 100%.

Repayment:

Recipients who do not qualify for forgiveness must repay their loan according to the terms stated in the promissory note. Repayment begins no later than the expiration of the grace period (six months after dropping to a less than half-time enrollment status).

Should the loan recipient begin repayment of this loan and subsequently become eligible for forgiveness, only the amount of the outstanding principal and interest at the time the eligibility is established will be subject to forgiveness at the rates described above. There is no rebate for payments made by the recipient prior to becoming eligible for forgiveness.

Confirmation:

At the end of the school term, SC Student Loan will mail an employment confirmation report to recipients who are eligible and who have requested forgiveness. Upon receipt of the confirmation report, the appropriate amount of your loan will be forgiven.
